

Sustainable Research Symposium

1st virtual Sustainable Research Symposium May 11th 2021

Organizers: CPR Goes Green & Ava Sustain (Copenhagen, Denmark)

Time zone: Central European Summer Time, CEST

Program

8:45	Welcome & Desired Outcome of the Day
9:00 – 10:30	First Session – Keynote speakers Martin Farley - Making labs more sustainable with the LEAF green lab standard Cristina Azevedo - Wet lab sustainability. Who, what and how? Hayley Beharrell - Procurement and sustainable science: How are they linked and how can we influence?
10:30 – 10:45	Coffee Break
10:45 – 11:45	Second Session – Keynote speakers Nikoline Borgermann - High-impact green lab actions and how to get your colleagues on board Cristina Greever & Star Scott - Connecting Sustainable Scientific Research and Social Justice
11:45 – 12:30	Short Talks – University of Copenhagen Speakers Tomas Refslund Poulsen - Climate goals and challenges of the University of Copenhagen Ann Schirin Mirsanaye - The power of local green initiatives: how to get started Andreas Latif - 'Common procurement agreements' as tools to promote sustainability Asger L. Christensen - Laboratory waste: where does it go when we throw it 'away'?
12:30 – 12:45	Coffee Break
12:45 – 13:45	Panel Discussions <ol style="list-style-type: none">Dilemmas when purchasing greener products: does 'green' equal 'more expensive' and 'reduced quality'? Companies: Axeb Danmark, Merck, SustainablesEquipment: what characterizes a greener product and how can manufacturers and lab users make a green difference? Companies: Stirling Ultracold, Inniti, and Holm & HalbyPlastic: how can manufacturers, vendors, and lab users fight the plastic waste problem? Companies: Saveen Werner, Kem-En-Tec Nordic, and DanDiag
13:45 – 14:00	Wrap Up and Information on Next Year's Symposium
14:00 – 14:45	Informal Networking Sessions: Meet the Speakers